

Industry Category	Description
All Industry Total	Includes all private industries and government entities.
Private Industries	Economic enterprises owned by individuals or groups (e.g., corporations, partnerships, sole proprietorships).
Agriculture, Forestry, Fishing & Hunting	Involves growing crops, raising animals, and harvesting timber, fish, and other natural resources.
Mining, Quarrying, and Oil & Gas	Extracts mineral solids (coal, ores), liquids (petroleum), and gases (natural gas). Includes mine operations and mining support services.
Utilities	Provides electric power, natural gas, steam, water supply, and sewage removal services.
Construction	Engages in building, infrastructure projects, and site preparation. May include new projects, repairs, and maintenance.
Manufacturing	Mechanical, physical, or chemical transformation of materials into new products (e.g., factories, plants, mills).
Durable Goods Manufacturing	Produces goods that can be used repeatedly over a long period.
Nondurable Goods Manufacturing	Produces goods usable over a short period (e.g., food, clothing).
Wholesale Trade	Sells merchandise to retailers, businesses, or other wholesalers. Services include buying, selling, and distribution.
Retail Trade	Sells goods and services to the general public for personal or household consumption. Includes both store and non-store retailers.
Transportation & Warehousing	Provides transportation of passengers and cargo, warehousing, and storage services. Covers various modes of transport (air, rail, water, road).
Information	Involves producing, distributing, and transmitting information (e.g., publishing, broadcasting, telecommunications, data processing).
Finance, Insurance, Real Estate	Engaged in financial transactions, risk pooling, real estate leasing, and related services.
Professional & Business Services	Includes legal, accounting, engineering, computer, and consulting services. Also involves administrative support and waste management services.
Educational Services	Provides academic or technical instruction through schools, colleges, and training centers.
Health Care & Social Assistance	Offers medical care and social support services through trained professionals.
Arts, Entertainment, Recreation	Includes facilities and services for cultural, recreational, and entertainment activities.
Accommodation & Food Services	Provides lodging and food services, such as hotels and restaurants.
Other Services	Includes activities like equipment repair, religious services, advocacy, personal care services, and household employment.
Government & Government Enterprises	Covers federal, state, and local government activities and services, including military operations.
Natural Resources & Mining	Comprises agriculture, forestry, fishing, and mining industries.
Trade	Combines wholesale and retail trade activities.
Transportation & Utilities	Includes utility services and various modes of passenger and cargo transportation.
Manufacturing & Information	Involves both manufacturing of goods and information-related services.
Private Goods-Producing Industries	Consists of agriculture, mining, construction, and manufacturing.
Private Services-Providing Industries	Encompasses utilities, trade, transportation, finance, real estate, professional services, education, healthcare, and more.

Table 1: Industry Categories and Descriptions